

SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER 2018

VERANDA

SPECIAL WANDERLUST ISSUE

A World of Treasures

Eclectic Interiors & Epic Design Journeys

REQUIRED READING

Make room on the bookshelf and clear off the coffee table for the season's most stylish, must-have design tomes.

1. Nina Campbell showcases her modern, cozy take on English traditionalism in Interior Decoration (Rizzoli, $60).
2. Perspective (Rizzoli, $65) explores the compelling mix of historicity and authenticity in Steven Gambrel's vivid, vital oeuvre.
3. The Gardens of Bunny Mellon (Vendome, $60) takes an insider's tour through the legendary tastemaker's influential green spaces.
4. In A Point of View (Rizzoli, $65), Veere Grenney articulates the seductive and sophisticated brand of worldly decorating that is his calling card.
5. Jeffrey Dungan shows how embracing the great outdoors can conjure an inimitable sense of place in The Nature of Home (Rizzoli, $55).
6. Palm Beach (Rizzoli, $65) offers a beguiling peek into the grand houses and gardens of the gilded seaside enclave.
7. Thomas O'Brien brings his expert eye to vintage elegance and modernism in Library House (Abrams, $60).
8. Inspired Design (Vendome, $75) is Veranda contributor Jennifer Boles's essential primer on the most important interior decorators from the last 100 years.
9. Suzanne Kasler's incomparable color sense and eclectic blend of high and low come to bright life in Sophisticated Simplicity (Rizzoli, $55).
10. In American Originals (Vendome, $65), William Abranowicz photographs extraordinary individuals and the unique, personal expressions of style they call home.
11. Nurture (Penguin Random House UK, $60) is Carole Bamford's chronicle of how a commitment to an eco-conscious lifestyle led her to found the influential Daylesford Organic chain of farm shops.
12. Veranda Escapes (Hearst, $60) is a compendium of the exquisite gardens, courtyards, porches, and pools that are our signature trademarks.